

ANNE SULLIVAN

34 Miracle Street, Fairfax Station, VA 22039, (703) 765-4300, Ext. 444
asulliva@aol.com SS # 326-60-5648

OBJECTIVE

A teaching position in grades K-3 within a local public school system that serves a diverse student population.

EDUCATION

M. Ed., Early Childhood Education, August 2001
Certification in Early Childhood Education (NK-3), May 2001
George Mason University, Fairfax, VA, Overall GPA 3.6

B.S., Psychology, Concentration in Developmental Psychology, May 1997
Marymount University, Arlington, VA, Major GPA 3.4, Overall GPA 3.1

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Student Teacher, Sleepy Hollow Elementary School, Falls Church, VA, 2000-2001.
Placements in kindergarten and first grade. Teach students in all subject areas according to the Virginia Standards of Learning. Plan and execute lesson plans; design creative learning centers; assess students' progress; and participate in parent/teacher conferences providing helpful feedback on students' social and academic skills development.

Field Experience in several Fairfax County Public Elementary Schools including Fairview, Timber Lane, Layton Hall. Spring 2000.
Completed 120 hours of observation and participation in classroom activities with students in kindergarten through third grade. Planned and taught interactive lessons in social studies, science, math, language arts, and art.

Substitute Teacher, Prince William Public Schools, VA, 1997-2000.
Substituted for ESL, kindergarten, first and second grades. Developed effective classroom management skills, led small group activities to promote respect for diversity, and taught lesson plans.

Classroom Volunteer, Bailey's Elementary School, Falls Church, VA, 1995-1997.
Contributed over 75 hours in a first grade classroom. Tutored children individually and in groups with math and reading. Planned and creatively taught various lessons including math games, felt board songs, and theme-related art projects. Assisted classroom teacher with lessons in math and science, and organized special field trips. Gained experience working with children from diverse cultural backgrounds.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Seminar: Teacher Created Materials: Hands-On Science for K-3 Teachers, January 1998
Workshop: Project Wild/Aquatic Wild, November 1997
Southeast Learning Styles Conference: Honoring Diversity, May 1996 and May 1997

Anne Sullivan
Page 2

SKILLS

- Computer proficiency in Microsoft Word, Window 95, Lotus, Excel, and Internet research.
- Fluent in Spanish, conversational ability in French.

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

Interacted extensively in Spanish, French, and British cultures while traveling in those countries.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

- Member, Northern Virginia Association for the Education of Young Children, 1999-present
- Member, Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development, 1998-present

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Solicited donations and founded the Mount Olive Day Care Center, Falls Church, VA. Secured donated space, recruited and hired teachers and teaching assistants, and provided training on techniques to stimulate intellectual development in preschool-aged children. Wrote grant for continued funding.

REFERENCES

Jennifer Smith, M.Ed.
Teacher
Sleepy Hollow Elementary School
2374 Rolling Road
Falls Church, VA 20333
(703) 267-5600

Marion West, Ed.D.
Principal
Timberlane Elementary School
7602 Lake Drive
Fairfax, VA 20300

Michael D'Angello, Ph.D.
Professor/Student Teaching Supervisor
George Mason University
Graduate School of Education
MS 2F1
4400 University Drive
Fairfax, VA 22030
(703) 993-1234

