One Key Question (Continued)

Part Two: What I Want Most

Now, read through the following list of “What I Want Most in the Place I Work” needs or attributes, and identify five statements that would best describe the attributes that you would like to find in the place you work. Feel free to add additional attributes that may be important to you when considering a place of employment.

- step-by-step training at work
- work either on virtual teams or with few people
- have a supervisor or manager who cares about me
- recognized for work I do well
- have a set schedule
- flexible environment that allows me some freedom
- be my own boss
- my opinion counts
- have to figure out things on my own
- family-friendly environment
- have strong work relationships
- working in a company with a large number of people I deal with each day
- clear career path within the organization
- there is someone always guiding my work
- have the opportunity to always be working with people
- work alone most of the time
- on-call position
- have a place where I believe in the mission of the company

Now, rank your choices in order of importance, starting with the most important and continuing to the least important.
